

If you've never been to Florence and if you have limited time, here is how to make the most of it: a one-day-itinerary, almost museum-free, with many churches, squares, places... and a lunch break at the market.

A

SANTA CROCE CHURCH

Don't miss the frescoes by Giotto in the Bardi and Peruzzi chapels (some of the earliest and most important, frescoes in Florence), the tombs and memorials of famous Tuscans, including Galileo Galilei and Michelangelo, the Pazzi chapel by Brunelleschi and the small museum housed in the refectory that has Taddeo Gaddi's Tree of Life on one wall. [Opening hours Monday-Saturday 9.30am-5.30pm, Sundays and public holidays 2-5.30pm. Tickets: 4-6 €]

• www.santacroceopera.it/en/

B

OBLATE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Take a break and stop at the new Oblate Public Library to have a coffee on the terrace, with one of the best view of the dome of the Florence's Cathedral.

• www.biblioteche.comune.fi.it/biblioteca_delle_oblate

C

PIAZZA DUOMO

Head to Piazza del Duomo, to admire the Cathedral (the fourth church of Europe by size!), with the Cupola del Brunelleschi, the Giotto's Campanile (bell-tower) and the octagonal Baptistry of St. John, one of the oldest buildings in the city (1059-1128) and renowned for its doors. If the line is not too long, you can try to climb to the top of the dome or bell tower, for a breathtaking view of Florence.

• www.museumflorence.com/en

D

BIGALLO MUSEUM

Enter the tourist information office which is located in the square (at the corner of Via Calzaiuoli) and book a free visit to the adjacent Bigallo Museum. This little precious museum contains works, paintings and sculptures, like a fresco produced by the workshop of Bernardo Daddi in 1342 – Madonna della Misericordia – featuring the oldest known depiction of Florence, in which we can recognize the baptistery and the incomplete facade of the Cathedral.

E

SAN LORENZO MARKET

Head to San Lorenzo area for lunch, which could be lampredotto at the traditional vendor inside the covered market or a bistecca fiorentina at a local trattoria. Don't forget to drink an espresso coffee, because there's plenty more to see!

F

SAN LORENZO CHURCH

This is the first whole building designed by Brunelleschi, who first did the facade of the Ospedale degli Innocenti and then the cupola of the Duomo – both projects that he didn't start. This church makes a lovely contrast to Santa Croce, because it's in the new Renaissance style, characterized by the harmonious alternation of grey pietra serena stone architectural accents and white wall. [Opening hours Monday-Saturday 10am to 5.30pm, Sundays and public holidays 1.30-5.30pm, closed November-February. Tickets: 4,50 € (Museum of the Treasure of San Lorenzo included)]

G

PALAZZO VECCHIO

Stroll down either via Roma or via Calzaiuoli for a bit of shopping, and then find yourself in Piazza della Signoria in front of Palazzo Vecchio, the city's seat of government. On the right side of the square is the Loggia dei Lanzi: an open-air museum containing original sculptures, such as Cellini's bronze Perseus and Giambologna's Rape of the Sabines. • museicivicifirentini.comune.fi.it/en/palazzovecchio/

H

PONTE VECCHIO BRIDGE

Walk to the end of the Uffizi buildings to the Arno and catch a view of the river and the universally famous Ponte Vecchio bridge. From this point you also have a good view of the Vasari Corridor, the hidden aerial passageway over Florence, linking Palazzo Vecchio to the Pitti Palace.

I

SANTA TRINITA CHURCH

Take via Tornabuoni – the luxury shopping street – and hop into the church of Santa Trinita where you'll be rewarded by a beautiful fresco by Ghirlandaio. Look carefully at the backgrounds of each scene as you should recognize some of these locations – you've seen them today!

The church closes at 5.45pm

J

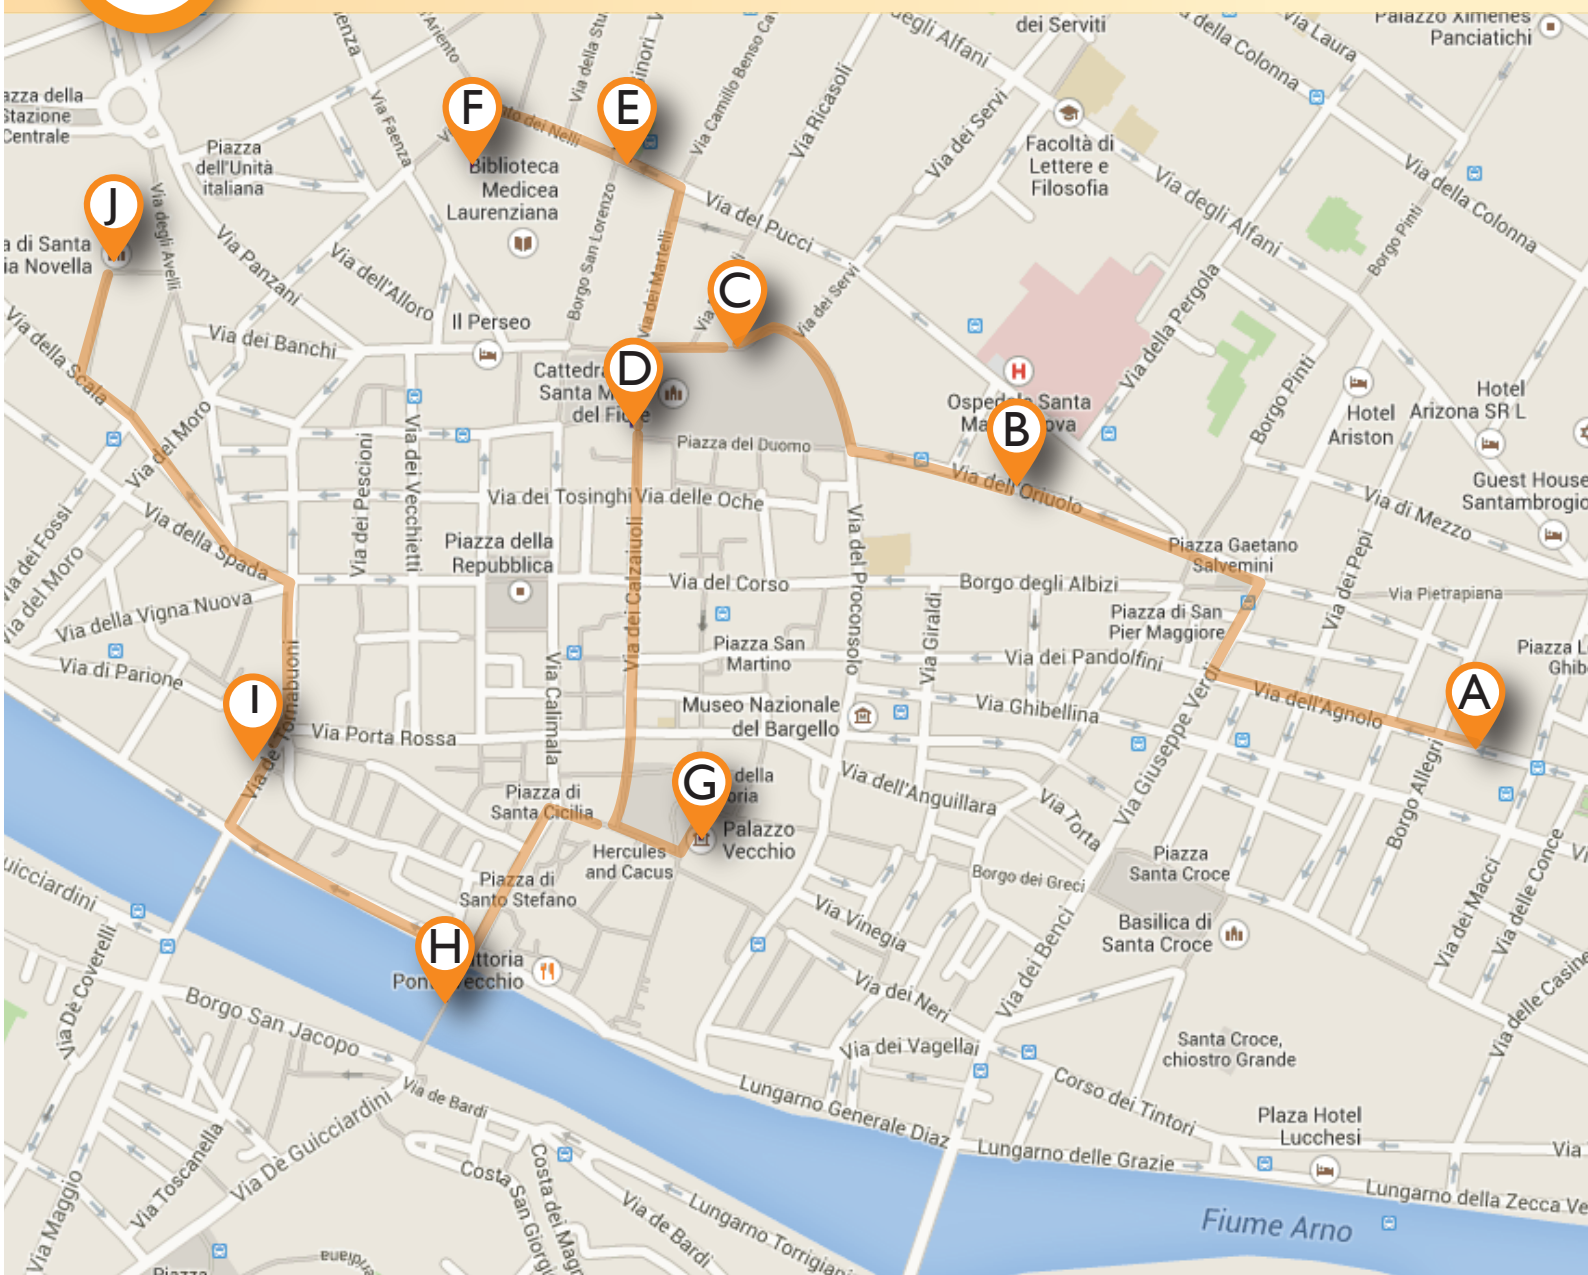

SANTA MARIA NOVELLA CHURCH

Santa Maria Novella is a Gothic structure with a Renaissance facade by the great architect Alberti. It houses the important fresco known as Masaccio's Trinity that is one of the first major studies in scientific perspective. The monumental complex of Santa Maria Novella can be visited with a single ticket including the Basilica, the Museum, the Cloisters – Cloister of the Dead, Green Cloister – the Spanish Chapel, the Ubriachi Chapel, the Refectory; on special open days, visitors can also tour the magnificent Great Cloister; currently part of the Scuola Marescialli e Brigadieri dei Carabinieri. [Opening hours Monday-Saturday 9am-5.30pm, Sundays 1-5pm from October to June, noon-5pm from July to September. Tickets: 5 €, reduced 3€]

• www.chiesasantamarianovella.it/en

One Day in Florence MAP

Notes...

Tuscany Arts 